VOLUNTARY

Wie schön leuchtet der Morgenstern (How brightly shines the morning star)

Dieterich BUXTEHUDE 1637–1707

HYMN 7 Christ whose glory fills the sky

RATISBON

Presider Blessed be God, who has come among us to dwell.

People Blessed be God, Emmanuel.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GLORY to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen

Presider           The Lord be with you.
People             And also with you.
Presider           Let us pray.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty and everliving God, we humbly pray that, as your only-begotten Son was this day presented in the temple, so we may be presented to you with pure and clean hearts by Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

Thus says the Lord, See, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight-- indeed, he is coming, says the LORD of hosts. But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears?

For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap; he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the descendants of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, until they present offerings to the LORD in righteousness. Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in the days of old and as in former years.

Reader            The Word of the Lord.

People            Thanks be to God.

Psalm 84 Quam dilecta

- 1 How dear to me is your / dwelling,
O Lord of / hosts!
- 1a My soul has a desire and longing for the courts of the / Lord;
my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living / God.
- 2 The sparrow has found her a / house

- 3 Happy are they who dwell in your / house!
they will always be praising / you.
- 4 Happy are the people whose strength is / in you!
whose hearts are set on the pilgrims' / way.
- 5 Those who go through the desolate valley will find it a place of / springs, for the early rains have covered it with pools of / water.
- 6 They will climb from height to / height,

- 7 Lord God of hosts, hear my / prayer;

- 8 Behold our defender, O / God;
and look upon the face of your an- / ointed.
- 9 For one day in your courts is better than a thousand in my / own room,

THE SECOND LESSON

Hebrews 2:14-18

Since God's children share flesh and blood, Jesus himself likewise shared the same things, so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by the fear of death. For it is clear that he did not come to help angels, but the descendants of Abraham. Therefore he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

People            Thanks be to God.

Deacon          The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People            Glory to you, Lord Christ.

THE GOSPEL

Luke 2:22-40

When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, the parents of Jesus brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord (as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every firstborn male shall be designated as holy to the Lord"), and they offered a sacrifice according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, "a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons."

Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit rested on him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Messiah. Guided by the Spirit, Simeon came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him what was customary under the law, Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying,

"Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace,
according to your word;
for my eyes have seen your salvation,
which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples,
a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel."

And the child's father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him. Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, "This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed-- and a sword will pierce your own soul too."

There was also a prophet, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, having lived with her husband seven years after her marriage, then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshiped there with fasting and prayer night and day. At that moment she came, and began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem. When they had finished everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.

Deacon            The Gospel of the Lord.
People            Praise to you, Lord Christ.

SERMON

THE NICENE CREED (recited in unison)

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Please stand or kneel, as able.

PRESENTATION HYMN 380, v. 3

PRAISE God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

THE HOLY COMMUNION (EP B, Expansive Language)

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant; because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

S. 129      SANCTUS and BENEDICTUS

POWELL

HOLY, holy, holy Lord, God of hosts,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Glory be to you, O Lord most high.

Blessed is he that comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In Christ, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In Christ, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,
We remember Christ's death,
We proclaim Christ's resurrection,
We await Christ's coming in glory;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Savior of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us in the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, through whom we are acceptable to you, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with Mary, the mother of God, and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your children; through Jesus Christ our Savior, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

OUR FATHER, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Presider breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Presider Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

ANNOUNCEMENTS AND UPCOMING EVENTS

MUSIC NOTES

Today is the feast of the Presentation of Christ into the Temple, also known as Candlemas, or the Feast of the Purification of Mary. It marks forty days after Christmas, when the infant Jesus was brought into the Temple as part of a purification ritual prescribed by Jewish law, and he was seen by Simeon and Anna. Simeon's prayer of blessing became the basis of the Nunc dimittis, the canticle used at evening offices in the Church since antiquity, a setting of which will be sung at communion in today's service. This setting was composed by Herbert Howells amidst the darkest days of World War II, yet it radiates a profound sense of truth and profundity. The theme of light is central to this feast, and is very present in this time of year when the lectionary focusses on the revelation of Christ to the world, which makes today's offertory anthem especially appropriate. It was composed by Pittsford-based composer, Jonathan Madden, taking inspiration from the 16th century Lutheran chorale, 'O morning star, how fair and bright,' (which was also the basis of the much earlier piece played as the prelude today). Madden places the centuries-old text and tune in a modern guise, creating sections which are sung in an aleatoric (random) way, meaning singers sing the line in their own time, creating an ethereal and other-worldly atmosphere. Everyone converges on the lines 'In your radiance,' leading to a powerful conclusion to the piece.

MEET THE RECTOR FORUM

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 2 AFTER BOTH SERVICES.

Please join Kevin to learn more about our him and what we can look forward to accomplishing together as Christ Church moves forward with a new leader.

WOMEN'S BOOK CLUB

Thursday, February 6 at 7:00 pm

We've chosen Gaudy Night by Dorothy Sayers. "The great Dorothy L. Sayers is considered by many to be the premier detective novelist of the Golden Age, and her dashing sleuth, Lord Peter Wimsey, one of mystery fiction's most enduring and endearing protagonists. Acclaimed author Ruth Rendell has expressed her admiration for Sayers's work, praising her 'great fertility of invention, ingenuity, and wonderful eye for detail.'" (from the MCLS website)

For more information, please contact Pam Burch(pburch1@rochester.rr.com.)

NON FICTION BOOK CLUB

Tuesday, February 18, 2025 at 3:00 pm

We will meet to discuss The Art Thief: A True Story of Love, Crime and a Dangerous Obsession by Michael Finkel. Stephane Breitwieser, with the assistance of his girlfriend, stole more than 300 artworks from some 200 places, averaging one theft every 12 days for seven years. Finkel presents a spellbinding portrait of obsession and flawed genius. This is a riveting story of art, crime, love and an insatiable hunger to possess beauty at any cost.

Our meetings are in a hybrid format with both in person attendance and via Zoom. Zoom information will be distributed prior to each meeting. To get more information about the book club, to be added to our distribution list or to suggest a book discussion, please contact Jim Baroody (jimbaroody@gmail.com).
